The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sate way that never falls to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This descreps it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary figured arvon, apply it at night when retiring, use enough to motion the body and rub it in gently with the finger tire.

Staten Aslanders Approve Trackless System and Tunnel Idea.

TRANSIT ABOVE PARTY

His Honor Demands to Know Where All Public Officials Stand on Question.

Yesterday's hearing before the Board f Estimate on Commissioner Whalen's rackless trolley system and the Staten Island tunnel gave Mayor Hylan an opportunity to make several miniature stump speeches and ended by his calling upon the members to adopt a resolution requiring candidates in the coming election to state their attitude publicly on the Hylan transit plan. The Mayor was playing "non-partisan lities" and made it plain that he rected his remarks to Republicans and Democrats alike, in the interest of he Staten Island commuters.

The delegation that came over from Staten Island placed the stamp of approval on the trackless trolley plan, the Staten Island tunnel as proposed the Hylan transit plan and, ineed, the entire Hylan administration, There wasn't a dissenting voice in the crowd and the Mayor beamed. He warmed up to the subject of placing andidates in the category of pro or anti-Hylan traction, and between the remarks of Max Thaten of the Staten Island Civic League, who was trying to elucidate the advantages of the Appland Resolution.

John A. Lynch, Borough President of Richmond, stepped into the breach and proposed a resolution requesting each candidate for the State Senate and Assembly to express his view upon municipal ownership and operation of the bus system, but this proposal was not sweeping enough for the Mayor. He wanted all the transit facilities of New York city included. Then taking a direct stap at Gov. Miller, and not specifically omitting Al Smith, he said:

"Why limit it to Senators and Assemblymen?" Way not go as far as candidates for Governor?

The resolution was adopted in that John A. Lynch, Borough President of dates for Governor?"

The resolution was adopted in that fashion amid applause.
The Transit Commission was accused of having belittled the rapid transit plan, while the Hylan project for a combination freight and passenger tunnel was lauded by all the speakers. Commissioner Winslen's scheme for the extension of his trackless trolleys was described by Mr. Thaten as "the most comprehensive transportation plan eyer deprebensive transportation plan ever de-vised for Staten Island." Whalen was unable to attend, because of illness. His place was taken by Deputy Commis-sioner W. Wirt Mills.

"Another point that appeals to us." said Mr. Thaten, "and which has been hanging over us like the sword of Dames, is the sarbage plant. Every w and then we bear rumors that the bage plant will resume operation. If does Staten Island will be Barren Island."

The point Mr. Thaten wanted to make was that if the trackless trolley system were extended it would need a power station. He asked What better use could be made of an obsolete garbage plant (San having it turned into a dynamo plant. Sconer or later, he said, someone is going to revive "that garbage plant," but he absolved the Mayor from any thoughts in that direction.

A nice bit of repartee, such as always can be guaranteed at any Board of Estimate meeting, occurred during the address of Francis F. Lemman, president of the Staten Island Civic Lengue. His-tory records, said Mr. Lehman, that Staten Island might have been Manhat-tee used it not been for the fact that the Staten Island might have been Manhattan had it not been for the fact that the Indians drave the first settlers away.

"The Indians in Wall street," countered the Mayor, "are trying to drive us out of all the boroughe."

Changes Made by Miller.

The other changes he made were:

(a). He abeliabed the State Tax appoint Republicans in their place.

This represented some real consolidation of activities under one head, but

(c) He abolished the office of the Superintendent of Elections and in effect recreated it under conditions which permitted of appointments without reference to the civil service of the State as a bureau in the office of the Attorney General.

(d) He made soveral perfectly futile changes like the re-creation of the changes like the re-creation of the Board of Port Wardens in a fee of-fice instead of a salaried office, inci-dentally legislating Democrats out of office and Republicans in, having pre-viously himself stated that this was a totally unnecessary office which should

This was done by the method of making a totally inadequate lump sum appropriation and abrogating the civil service law as to the laying off of employees, and by substituting for the experienced deputies under civil service, inexperienced, exempt patrenage employees.

(f) He also added several other new departments.

(g) Even the Central Purchasing Department which he has inaugurated is incapable of functioning in connection with present scattered, incoordinated departments, because of the statutory and constitutional powers which still inhere in the multitude of dispersion of the statutory and constitutional powers which still inhere in the multitude of dispersions of the statutory departments having leads ected departments having legal ers to expend moneys.

Smith Gives Miller Credit.

"One reform for which we wish to give him full credit is that he has Staten Island tunnel, he interjected the following remarks and prophecies:
"Whether the Hylan plan goes through changes made. Also it is a plain "Whether the Hylan plan goes through or the Transit Commission plan or Me-Aneny's plan goes through" said the Mayor, transfixing Mr. Thaten with a ferce blue look, "depends entirely upon the election on November 7."

that Gov. Miller brought to utter destruction.

"And there is not a man or woman within the hearing of my voice," continued the Mayor, "that should not demand to know from their Assemblyman or Senater, regardless of party, whether he stands for the plan I have suggested or whether he will stand for some other barometer plan, or increased fare. That is what ought to be done."

"Now Mr. Mayor and gentlemen, if you will look on page eleven you will see 'six new tunnels in city's plan."
